The Happenings of the Past Week Told in Detail by Efficient Correspondents.

OAKLEY.

Oakley, Utah, Aug. 16, 1899.

Front every night this week. Haying is in full blast and the crop is light. James Evans is suffering with hay-fever again. Miss Evelyn Jensen went to Salt Lake on the 17th. W. J. Mueller and Irvin Jensen will take in the celebration at Salt Lake. Mrs. T. T. Rasmussen returned from Provo looking as robust and healthy as ever.

The soldier boys have received their passes to Salt Lake to attend the celebration. W. H. Stevens is preparing to make a new flume and penstock to his great mill. W. H. Silsbee has the contract. The boys arrested here last week for shooting fish were not residents of Oakley, as we have no such boys in our town. They were from Kamas, Woodland and Salt Lake. We will not give the names as they were released by the county attorney.

E. A. Davis, a veterinarian from Mercur, was accidentally shot on Wednesday, the 16th. He and his brother-in-law, a young man, were in the woods along the river near what is known as the old Wardwell mill, in the Wasatch canyon. They were in the woods to get a deer to shoot the bird, accidentally let the gun slip, and a bullet passed so close to his head, it struck his shoulder, lodging near the back in the left shoulder, which caused death in about five hours. When found by some men, he was very cold and was lying on the ground near the bridge, his brother-in-law was sitting in excitement, not knowing what to do. It was a very strange thing for the young man, his presence without any one to help him. He would make any man shoulder to his place in his position.

Bert Wilby, who has heard of the affair, came to the assistance and telephoned for Dr. J. H. Smith of Park City but when he reached the place it was too late. Doctor J. H. Smith and Joseph Phillips were called and went to the scene of the accident. He explained a jury and held an inquest, which decided that Mr. Davis's death was by accidental shooting of a gun in his own hands. The body was removed to the Oakley school house and the county attorney telephoned to take action in the case.

PROVO.

Provo, Utah, Aug. 16, 1899.

Nights are getting chilly. Frost on the morning of the 16th did some little damage to tender plants. The weeding of hay is being rushed with a sick and every body is up to their eyes with work. The exhibition here on Monday night of moving pictures was very good, and was the delight of the small boys and girls.

The citizens of Provo have received an invitation to attend the reception of the returning volunteers which will be given there at Park City and it is expected that a large number will attend.

Abraham Walker returned home a few days ago from a trip he made to Idaho. The young gentlemen have a large number of relatives and friends in our neighborhood and had a very enjoyable time with them.

ROCKPORT.

Rockport, Utah, Aug. 16, 1899.

Windy weather. Harvest has commenced. Fruit peddlers are scarce. Mrs. H. E. Seamon had a rug bee Friday. David Reinton was at the old stand Sunday. The stamp picture gallery pitched tent here Tuesday. Belle Gibbons has gone to Park City, to work for a short time.

Gramophone lawn concerts are the order of the day socially. S. G. Warren came in Tuesday evening on his way to Park City. Mrs. J. C. Coney and her son, John, visited Mrs. Wardell in Weber canyon last week.

Mrs. Briggs of Kays House, a half sister to Mrs. Kidway of this place, has been visiting in this burg for a week past.

Cyrus Mitchell and Ray Anderson spent Sunday evening in Rockport. Of course, only to see the boys.

Meers, John Smith, Will Judd and Mark Hixson of Wanship were up Sunday evening—of course, only to see the boys.

Our visitors to the soldiers' reception at Salt Lake will be reported next week. Quite a number from this place expect to go. J. Coney accompanied Mr. Rasmussen to Provo last week for the purpose of assisting in bringing Mrs. R. home from the asylum.

Mr. Fox spent the fine part of the week in Park City looking after investments on some of his cattle property there.

Henry Seamon and W. A. Smith made a trip to Coalville Tuesday to attend a meeting of the old folks committee at the latter place. They were accompanied by Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Seamon. George Gibbons of Oakley, another settler, passed through here on the same errand, taking with him his mother, Mrs. Gibbons of this place.

Worth Gibbons is to run the Brown-Coney binder this week. He opened the season Monday by cutting a patch of dry-farm wheat for Mr. Seamon. This dry-farm patch has a history. Over 1000 squirrels were caught in and around it, in the season of the season, Mr. Seamon going over the field two to four times a day. He has sown corn what crop has been harvested, for the little autumn, he claims, has taken two-thirds of it.

Messrs. William Bradford, principal of the Jackson school, Salt Lake City, and R. B. Bradford, assistant professor in the University of Utah, spent several days in Rockport hunting and fishing. They took with them a string of fish and a bunch of chickens as trophies of their trip. They returned Wednesday via Park City, whence they went to study ferns and gather specimens, R. B. Bradford being curator of the University museum.

In answer to the Park City Record we are glad to say that a misunderstanding has been cleared up and that the Park City volunteer reception committee has been compelled to clear themselves of the matter of invitations. The Rockport people, as well as those of the other towns of this valley who were getting ready to offer a selection for the program, are as patriotic as any other people of this State, and really desired to help in the entertainment, as evidenced by their organization of a choir. Our information came from so many supposedly reliable sources, and particularly from that one of the main committees of Park City said to be a citizen of this place, that we were compelled to look upon it as conclusive, hence arose the misunderstanding. We are indeed gratified to learn that the country towns are offered a place on the program, but although we had begun to prepare as this late date, it will be impossible to accept the offer. However, we bespeak a liberal attendance on Monday next.

WASHPHE.

Wanship, Utah, Aug. 17, 1899.

Miss Hattie Lee is out from Salt Lake making her folks a visit.

A number of our people will attend the volunteer's reception in Salt Lake. Mel Fisher came down from a deer canyon this week and is stopping with relatives here.

Joseph Knight of Salt Lake has been here for three days taking photos and has done quite a business.

Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. Neff and Mrs. Capron of Salt Lake are here making their summer visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hixson.

The Gilder company gave an exhibition here Tuesday to a good sized crowd. The people were somewhat disappointed in the show.

HOXTONVILLE.

Horticulture, Utah, Aug. 17, 1899.

Mrs. Alma Sargent is down from Evanston on a visit.

Miss Caroline Schuler of Salt Lake is out visiting with Mrs. Florence Brown, Carl Allison and Miss Lavina Ogden of Coalville have been employed to teach the district school this season.

Albert Folsom, of the U. S. Navy, and an early resident of this locality when a young man, was here this past week visiting his old friends. Mr. Folsom was in the light, or shooting of the business islands a few weeks back, and on the battleship Oregon during its essential course around the continent, he being a port officer. He will spend four years in the government every three years, and then take vacation at San Francisco.

UPPER.

Upper, Utah, Aug. 17, 1899.

Kider Hopkin of Kays was the speaker at the afternoon service here on Sunday last.

Mrs. Joseph Hopkin of Kays presented the Union work with a beautiful bouquet of flowers last Sunday, which were raised on Weaver's ranch on Hoff creek.

R. L. Baldwin, of the geological survey, is now located at Upper on the Clark homestead.

Monday last was a day of pleasure and enjoyment, the occasion being the holding of the East Coalville Union on Sunday school, as per arrangements, for a day's outing. At 1 p. m. the East Coalville school, with their superintendent and teachers and many of the other people, arrived at the Clark hall, where an address was given to the visitors by Supt. James Judd. The exercises consisted of singing, etc., which showed that the children had been well trained. A 2 p. m. a bounteous repast was enjoyed. The afternoon was spent in dancing and other exercises by the school children. It was a day long to be remembered and it is hoped that this is only the beginning of such social gatherings.

HEXSEVEN.

Hexseven, Utah, Aug. 17, 1899.

Some of our citizens have gone in by train to the reception in the volunteers. Mrs. Alice of Salt Lake City has been visiting here during the week, the guest of James Fowler.

W. H. Branch of Coalville is busy planning J. B. Fawcett's new house.

Mrs. Zina Gardner of Peterson is journeying here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Richards.

A wedding dance is announced for Friday night.

Gibson Condie and son, Thomas R., of Graydon were the speakers here on Sunday last.

The U. S. surveyors and engineers are driving stakes here and it is to be hoped outside track will materialize in the near future.

SOCIETY NOTES.

A Number of Parties Held During the Week.

Society has been extremely gay in Coalville for the past week. The heat of the cities has driven many pleasure seekers to the cooler climes of Coalville. Several parties have gone to the mountains to fish and hunt and incidentally take a few snap shots, while others have enjoyed indoor amusements. The mornings, afternoons and evenings have been devoted to card parties, meals and carillon drives.

PARTY AT HOME OF MRS. E. K. STANLEY, JR.

The palatial residence of Mrs. Thomas Hall was the scene of a very pleasant party Monday afternoon given by Mrs. R. F. North in honor of Mrs. Allison of Ogden. The decorations were most artistic, consisting of cut flowers and similar, while special mention should be made of the tally and score cards. The unique tally cards were darker figures sketched on blotting cloth over pink satin ribbon, and the score cards were hand painted watercolor slips. The score was tallied by small envelopes pinned in the hall, one for each successful winner of a game.

At the close it was found that the following ladies had each scored five points: Mrs. L. E. Edmundo, Mrs. Jack Parlar, Mrs. George Edgington, Mrs. W. Hixson. Of these Mrs. Whedon was successful in the final score, and received a beautiful hand embroidered shawl.

At 4:30 the guests were invited to the dining room where a dainty repast was served, consisting of delicious salads, soup, etc.

The invited guests were Mesdames E. M. Allison, Jr., Mrs. Evans, Edith L. E. Edmundo, Callie, Leslie Boyden, Rachel, of Chicago, Carl Allison, Will Fisher, James Hall, Lewis, Dr. French, Alma Smith, Cassin, Chandler, Will Hall, the Misses Dora, Bucher, Maggie Lundy and Amy Boyden.

SOCIETY MEETING OF THIS WEEK.

At the magnificent residence of Hon. Alma Eldredge Tuesday night occurred the society meeting of the week. The hostesses were Mrs. Alma Eldredge and Mrs. George Edgington, who entertained in honor of Mr. and Mrs. George Bucher of Chicago. The guests arrived at 8:30 and much merriment was caused by each guest being presented with a tally card on which was inscribed a commendation, the answer to which was the name of well-known bakers written on the ladies' cards. On the tables were arranged fragrant bouquets for each guest.

Seven games of whist were played at the close of which Mrs. Dr. French, Mrs. E. M. Allison, Jr., Mrs. Bucher, Mrs. Dora Bucher and Mrs. Lewis each had five games. After cutting the cards Mrs. Bucher was the winner of a very handsome bonnet dish, while Mrs. Whedon was the recipient of a handsome silver tray. Piano solos were interspersed throughout the evening by local talent. The guests then enjoyed an elegant buffet luncheon in the dining room, consisting of all the delicacies of the season. At a late hour the guests very reluctantly bade the hostess "good night" after having spent a most delightful evening. The invited guests were Mrs. and Mrs. Bucher, Dr. and Mrs. French, Mr. and Mrs. Will Cluff of Salt Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Paulsen of Ogden, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Whedon, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Allison, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Eldredge, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wilkins, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Fisher, Mesdames Cluff, Allison, Northcott, Chandler, Bromley, Hazleton and Hixson; Miss Bucher; and Messrs. Bucher, Edgington, Evans, Earl Eldredge.

DINNER PARTY.

Mrs. Bucher entertained at a charming party last Tuesday evening at the Hotel Weber. There were present Mr. and Mrs. George Bucher, Mrs. E. M. Allison, Jr., and sons, Miss Dora Bucher, J. B. Baldwin and Carl Bucher.

INVITATION TO ALL.

Reception to the Returned Volunteers.

In compliance with the general invitation extended by His Excellency, Governor Heber M. Wells, to the people of the State to unite in a grand demonstration and reception, on the occasion of the return of the Utah Battalion of Light Artillery from the Philippines Islands, and in a fitting manner express the love and high esteem in which Utah holds her Volunteers for their loyalty in responding so promptly to the call for men to uphold the honor and dignity of our nation and flag, and avenge the dastardly destruction of the "Maine" and her gallant men.

As a feature of the celebration to take place on that occasion, it is proposed to invite all returned Volunteers now within the State, who enlisted in any of the Utah organizations, to participate in the parade, and to be present at the exercises to receive the medals of honor to be presented by the State.

The original muster rolls in the Governor's office give the addresses of these Volunteers previous to their enlistment, but in the lapse of so eventful a year very many of them have changed their residences. The committee desires to ascertain all their present address, and to this end requests all returned Volunteers now within the State to forward their present addresses to their old commanding officers as follows:

First Troop Utah Cavalry, to Capt. Joseph E. Colver, Salt Lake City. Troop 1, Second U. S. Volunteer Cavalry, to Lt.-Col. John Q. Cannon, Salt Lake City.

Battery C, Utah Volunteer Artillery, to Lt. John T. D. Murphy, Ogden. Returned Batteries of Batteries A and B, to Sergeant D. H. Wells, Salt Lake City.

Third U. S. volunteer engineers, commanding E. C. Johnson, Salt Lake City.

The Committee further desires to know, as far as possible, the name and number that will be in ranks, of all organizations—especially uniformed—throughout the State, that expect to be present at Salt Lake City on that occasion, that provision may be made for their proper assignment in the parade.

It is also earnestly desired to know the name and address of every band that will be present in the exercises on that day, that they may have proper assignment in the line.

Address of committees as excepting those specified above, to Hon. W. H. Pennington, Grand Marshal, Room 411, Adelphi Block, Salt Lake City, or call up Phone 699.

General W. H. Pennington, U. S. A. Grand Marshal.

Getting Ready to Resume.

Superintendent R. C. Chambers who has been in the Park the greater part of the week, was asked concerning the future of the Ontario mill, as rumors had it that it would soon start up. Mr. Chambers here informed the reporter that there was no likelihood of the mill starting up this year, although workmen could be put to work right away tearing down the old furnace and building a new one, and making other repairs that were necessary should work come to start the machinery. Mr. Chambers thought it very likely that early in 1900 the mill would be running in full blast so in days of years—indications now pointing in that direction. This will be welcome news to Parkites, and is another sign that the great Ontario is steadily and surely perfecting details to resume operations on as large a scale as ever in its history.—Park Record.

The Sunday School Picnic.

The Coalville, Hoxtonville, Kays and Hexsever Sunday schools gave a picnic in Park City, one mile east of Hoxtonville on Monday. Over 500 people were present. The picnic was a very pretty place and one could see "The birds singing over by one and three. In the hay-dressed the horses up to their knees. The little birds sang as if it were the only day of summer in all the year, even the very leaves seemed to sing on the trees. And 'twas the happiest lot in all the country."

About 7 o'clock in the morning the wagons began gathering in front of the State House and an hour later they were all bound for the grove. Happy children indeed they were when it was announced that the picnic was really started. The picnic was a very pretty place and one could see

At 11 o'clock lunch was partaken of and all ate till they were full. In the afternoon singing was indulged in, making the day one of pleasure mingled with religious devotion.

Thanks to the Hexsever people for supplying the time and place an exceptional one.

Nearing sunset the wagons began their homeward trip, the children all in pairs in their shoes and their trunks as they school teachers and drivers thanking him who gives all.

Spencer Cliff Dead.

John Spencer Cliff, son of Samuel R. Cliff of Provo, died on the 15th inst. at the residence of his uncle, William Carruth, Coalville, after a long and severe illness with an attack of heart trouble. The dear boy has been afflicted with heart disease for a number of years, during which time he has had several very severe attacks, the last of which appeared about the first of the year, and from which he never rallied.

Spencer was born at the home in which he expired, on November 26th, 1885, making him at his demise 13 years, 8 months and 21 days old.

The funeral took place at the residence of William Carruth yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Present W. W. Cluff and Elder J. A. Smith were the speakers on the occasion, both of whom spoke of the boy's character and faith, and expressed the feelings of confidence manifested in the home of the large assembly present. Director J. W. Slack with a number of his choir, rendered some excellent and appropriate hymns at the service, which were much appreciated, and caused all reflective in the audience, over the life and temptations of this job, and the rewards of future eternal. The remains were conveyed to the Coalville City cemetery and there interred with appropriate ceremonies.

For weeks and months the patient was through faith, endured his pain, and trusted in his God, alone. His body to sustain.

Though through the fall of events dear, He lingered, full of love, He called him to a better sphere, He'd work for him above. He's gone below, his work is done; Dear parents do not weep, He now is working hard for you in heav'n, behind the veil.
